Bugenia Burch and The Picket raced with McChesney right in be-

Africander turned nto the stretch a head in front of McChesney, who was a head in front of Eugenia Burch. It was the hottest knd of a drive to the firsh. Africander lasting long enough to win by a head. McChesney beat Eugenia Burch by a nose, and The Pickett was only beaten half a length. He was easily the best horse. The race was very pretty to look at.

Long that Wins the First,

This being the thirteenth day of the month it was in order for No. 13 on the programme to distinguish himself. He awas a 30 to 1 shot, and not serrously considered. Memphis, however, rushed to the front, made all the running and won in a drive by a head from Phantom, who closed strong and beat Water Pansy five lengths for the place. Lem Reed was backed very heavily from s to 1 down to 2 to 2. He was never prominent.

Piret Mason in a Gallop. First Mason in a Gellos.

First Mason was the favorite in the second race, but St. Valentine had heavy backing, and Ormonde's Right was also well played. Gay Boy rushed to the front, nd made pace, followed by First Mason and Grey Friar. They ran this way with little change to the far turn, where Ormonde's Right moved into third place. When the stretch was reached. First Mason went to the front with ease, and won in a gallop, a length from Ormonde's Right, who heat Gay Boy a neck for the place.

rushed to the front at the start in the third race and opened up a gap of half a dozen lengths on Dandellon, who laid second, and Pasadena, who was third. On the turn Belle Strome was inclined to run out, and Redfern had to tip her on the head to keep her in. She then suited and had to be hard ridden at the ead to win by half a length in time equalling the world's record. Dandellon was five lengths in front of Pasadene.

Africande- Was Lucky.

Africande Was Lucky.

The Picket was a slight choice over McChemey for the Cup Preliminary. Africander was the outsider at 20 to 1. The race was not true run. The pace was low, with a sorint through the last half mile. Eugenia Burch made the pace, followed by The Picket and McChenney. They ran in this order to the far turn, where McChenney started to make his run. He ran out, but came hack quickly and shut off The Picket. Africander took advantage of the melecand sneaked through between McChesney and Eugenia Burch, and there was a red hot drive to the finish, Africander winning by a head from McChesney, who beat Eugenia Burch a nose, Dick Bernard Wins Easily.

Raughty Lady raced to the front and showed the way to the far turn, followed by Dick Bernard, Canteen and south Trimble. On the turn Dick Bernard to the front and breesad home an easy winner by half a dozen leagths from Canteen, who beat Stolen Moments a head for the place.
